We are pleased to announce part two of the exhibition VOLUME II, subtitled It Feels Good!

VOLUME is an exhibition series featuring the class of Joachim Blank (Academy of Visual Arts, Leipzig) that is compiled by a different curator every year. Following the initial exhibition in 2006, the gallerist Jan Winkelmann has been invited to curate this year's exhibition. Winkelmann was curator at the Museum for Contemporary Art Leipzig from 1998 until 2003, when he founded his gallery in Berlin.

Above and beyond the presentation of selected artistic positions culled from the class of Joachim Blank, Jan Winkelmann's exhibition concept for VOLUME II involves an exchange of exhibition sites: the class exhibition is not, as would be expected, to be presented in the Universal Cube set up by Blank's class on the grounds of the Spinnerei in Leipzig. Instead, the exhibition is being presented in the gallery space of Jan Winkelmann / Berlin until 27 October. In turn, It Feels Good! featuring artists of the gallery, is now on display at the Universal Cube in Leipzig.

Opening hours: Fri-Sat, 11 am - 6 pm, Sun, 2 pm - 6 pm
